

Figure 1. Approximate station locations for a tsunami monitoring network of six systems, and the planned deployment year. Note that station AKRT01 will be eliminated, to be replaced in 1998 by a system located in the triangular array of research BPRs to the northwest. Inset shows design of DART real-time reporting system.